Base Installation Instructions
Model BSC1001

Li-ion
All LifeShield products work together as a system to protect your home. They must be installed in a specific order to work properly. The Base must be installed first followed by the Console and other components.

Base Kit Components
- BSC1001 Base
- PSC0101 Power Adapter
- LS220 Li-ion Rechargeable Battery
- Phone Cord
- Internet Cable

Install the Base
(Only 1 Base may be used on a system)

Install Battery
- Locate the LifeShield LS220 Rechargeable Battery.
- Remove the stand by sliding the table stand downward from the main body of the Base.
- Insert the battery, observing correct polarity as shown. When viewed from the front (the side with the logo and the openings for the siren), the positive terminal should be on the right.
- Replace the stand by sliding upward onto the main body of the Base.

NOTE: LED will illuminate briefly when Battery is first connected.

Connect Power Adapter
- Do not use an electrical outlet that is controlled by a switch.
- Insert the power adapter plug fully into the jack on the back of the Base. Plug the power adapter into the wall outlet.

CAUTION: RISK OF EXPLOSION IF BATTERY IS REPLACED BY AN INCORRECT TYPE. DISPOSE OF USED BATTERIES PROPERLY.

NOTE: Use only LifeShield LS220 Rechargeable Battery supplied with your Base. Use only PSC0101 Power Supply. Do not use any other adapter.

Replacement battery packs are also available through the LifeShield’s Customer Support at 1-888-392-2044 or on-line at www.LifeShield.com.

Place the power adapter cord so that it does not create a trip hazard, or become pinched and create an electrical hazard.

Connect Base to the Internet
(and optionally to Telephone Line)

Connecting the Base
- Connect the Ethernet cable between a available port on your router and the back of the Base.
- Optionally connect the telephone cord to the Base and telephone wall jack. The telephone line provides a backup path for alarm communications if your internet connection is not functioning.

Install Battery
- a) Connect the Ethernet cable between an available port on your router and the back of the Base.
- b) Optionally connect the telephone cord to the Base and telephone wall jack. The telephone line provides a backup path for alarm communications if your internet connection is not functioning.

Add the new Base to the system:
1. Remove all cords from back of the new Base (power cord, phone, Ethernet) and remove battery from new Base. Wait 1 minute.
2. Connect only the power cord to the new Base and immediately press and hold the PAGE button on the new Base for about 45 seconds until the new Base sounds a success tone (4 ascending beeps). You may release the button.
3. On an existing Console, use the SCROLL and SELECT buttons to navigate to GC or Handset (Menu/Security Setup/SC/s or Handset).
4. Press the SELECT key to <<Add New>>. The system will begin searching for the new Base.
5. The system display and audio signal will inform you the Base is found. Press OK.
6. You will then be given the option to edit the default name
7. Use DELETE to erase the current name and replace with new limit by using the keypad.
8. Press OK.
Connect battery and Ethernet cord (and optional telephone line, if applicable) to the Base. Allow 3 minutes for the System to synchronize.

NOTE: If you are installing a router for the first time, refer to your router installation instructions before connecting the Base.

FCC Information

FCC Part 15
This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

CAUTION: Changes and modifications to this product not expressly approved by LifeShield, Inc. could void not only the user’s authority to operate this device, but also the limited warranty.

Note:
- This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:
  - Reorient or relocate the radio or television receiving antenna
  - Reorient or relocate and increase the separation between the LifeShield equipment and radio or television receiver
  - Connect the LifeShield equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the radio or television receiver is connected
  - Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help

Delete the original Base from the system
1. On an existing Console, use the SCROLL and SELECT buttons to navigate to GC or Handset (Menu/Security Setup/SC/s or Handset).
2. Scroll to the Base name, press the SELECT key.
3. Scroll to Delete, press the SELECT key.
4. Press OK key to confirm.

Replace the Base in an Existing System
This section ONLY applies if you have an existing system with a malfunctioning Base and need to replace the Base. This section does not apply to new systems.

When Using a DSL Modem
Plug a DSL filter into the telephone line splitter (which is in turn plugged into a wall phone jack). Plug one end of a telephone cord into the Base filter and the other end into the telephone line jack in the Base. Connect a second telephone cord from your router into the telephone splitter.

If this equipment causes harm to the telephone network, the telephone company will notify you in advance that a temporary discontinuance of service may be required. But if advance notice isn’t practical, the telephone company will notify you as soon as possible. Also, you will be advised of your right to file a complaint with the FCC if you believe it is necessary.

FCC Part 68
This equipment complies with Part 68 of the FCC rules and the requirements adopted by the ACTA. On the equipment there is a label that contains, among other information, a product identifier in the format US:AAAEO#TXXXXX. If requested, this number must be provided to the telephone company.

A plug and jack used to connect this equipment to the premises wiring and telephone network must comply with the applicable FCC Part 68 rules and requirements adopted by the ACTA.

Registration No.: Found on the bottom of the unit.

The Ringer Equivalence Number (REN) for this is used to determine the number of devices that may be connected to a telephone line. Excessive RENs on a telephone line may result in the devices not ringing in response to an incoming call. In most but not all areas, the sum of RENs should not exceed five (5.0). To be certain of the number of devices that may be connected to a line, as determined by the total RENs, contact the local telephone company. For products approved after July 23, 2001, the REN for this product is part of the product identifier that has the format US:AAAEO#TXXXXX. The digits represented by # are the REN without a decimal point (e.g., 03 is a REN of 0.3).

If trouble is experienced with this equipment, for repair or warranty information, please contact LifeShield, Inc. at 1-888-392-2044 or support@LifeShield.com. If the equipment is causing harm to the telephone network, the telephone company may request that you disconnect the equipment until the problem is resolved.

Connection to a party line service is subject to state tariffs. Contact your local public utility commission, public service commission or corporation commission for information.

You must not connect your phone to:
- Coin-operated systems
- Most electronic key telephone systems

Receptacle:
- Coin-operated systems

If your home has separate wired alarm equipment connected to the telephone line at the same time LifeShield equipment is installed, ensure the installation of both sets of equipment do not interfere with one another. If you have questions about what will disable the equipment, consult your telephone company or a qualified installer.

CAUTION:
To ensure proper operation, this equipment must be installed according to the enclosed installation instructions. To verify that the equipment is operating properly and can successfully report an alarm, this equipment must be tested immediately after installation, and periodically thereafter, according to the enclosed test instructions.
